Re: Letter of Gratitude

Hope this letter finds you well. We would like to forward our sincere gratitude for your donation to the Centre and the Alex Community. In regard to kiddie's toys and blankets, indeed u have put a smile on their faces.

24/7 Securities, on behalf of Phuthaditjaba Community Centre we wish to express our humble and heartfelt gratitude to your self for general support. We therefore recognize you as our champion and patron in building our mission stronger to better our beneficiaries. Our centre is committed to building better community and providing humanitarian support to the disadvantage and vulnerable youth, children and elderly. As the founder and managing member of the centre, I believe that it takes unity in the front with leaders like you in ensuring a better South Africa in meeting our Government head on, this objectively delivering the combating of teenage pregnancy, crime and alleviation of poverty and fighting inequalities but giving a full right to an ordinary being the right to better life.

I am honoured to have journeyed 45 years of humanitarian and philanthropy practice to the fellow colourful mankind of the Republic of South Africa. I cordially invite you to join us in our mission and step in to our centre and witness an amazing humanity through your support, our practice, volunteerism and community service enjoyed by the elderly, youth and children on our care.

Once and again let me say we are privileged to receive your donations, and May God in all his bounty mercy bless you and keep you for us, May we also seize greater in our partnership and so your company to grow from strength to strength for this year and years o come.

Yours in Community Service
